SURAT REGISTERS 9 CASES OF SUICIDE

Workers' plight takes polish off India's diamond city

ABHINAY KUMAR Surat, July 11

SURAT, SITUATED ON the banks of the Tapi river, is known as India's diamond city as it processes 80-90% of the world's diamonds. Of late, however, the city is making headlines for the wrong rea-

Over the past few weeks, Surat has registered nine cases of suicide - all of workers engaged in the diamond industry - a portent of the ominous times the once glittering trade is going through.The unfortunate saga started a month ago when a diamond worker aged 55, his wife and two adult children died after they reportedly consumed a poisonous substance due to financial distress after he lost his job of 30 years.

The incident has sent shockwaves across the city among the 5,000 diamond cutting and polishing factories employing over a million people, nearly 90% of them migrants from Gujarat's Saurashtra region.The Surat Diamond Workers' Union claims that more than 20,000 workers in the industry have lost their jobs.

But those who are still employed are in dire straits. There was a time when the industry used to work the whole year without any long holidays, except for the Diwali season when the workers were allowed to avail a month's leave to visit their hometowns.

IN DISTRESS

in the industry have lost their jobs

But now, the workers are being forced to work just five days a week, that too with reduced work hours. They are reportedly also being compelled to avail unpaid summer break of 20 to 25 days. Reduced weekly work hours have impacted the salaries of the workers who are getting 30-35% lower salaries than what they used to get previously. The reason for the industry's is obvious -- the ongoing Russia-Ukraine war, economic instability in European and other western countries. India's gems and jewellery exports fell from ₹1.82 trillion in FY22 to ₹ 1.76 trillion in FY23. And the prospects aren't bright either.

hours have impacted the salaries of the workers who are getting 30-35% lower salaries than what they used to get the reduction in work hours and the prolonged summer break as a way of averting large scale unemployment. Mangukiya says there has been no significant price drop in the diamond market. What is also holding up the domestic market demand is the growing popularity of lab grown diamonds or CVD diamonds which have provided a much needed stability to the market. The Russia-Ukraine war has also resulted in supply shortages for the rough dia-caused economic instability. Further, increased inflation has reduced the purchasing power of the consumer.Russian rough diamond constitutes almost one-third of the total raw material demand of the industry and the war has disturbed the easy and seamless process of diamond import.

The total rough diamond supply from Russia has come down to under 10% against the more than 35% prior to the industry sources.NanuBhai Vekariya, president, Surat Diamond Association, dismissed all the claims of workers losing their jobs. Manufacturers, in fact, are facing a shortage of workers. The domestic market, he says, is doing very well and the buying in the coming festival season will revive the industry. Unions wonder why then is the industry cutting jobs and reducing pay. Bhavesh Tank, Surat zone president, Diamond Workers' Union, says, the Surat Diamond Association "doesn't care about the welfare of the workers, all they care about is their profitabil-The post Covid boom in business has brought them a significant amount of profits and now they do not want to compromise on those profits. Because of salary cuts and job losses many of the diamond workers are looking for alternate livelihood options like agriculture and other manual jobs."Tank says the employers make "their own absurd rules that are unfavourable to the workers". For example, in the name of professional tax, the employer deducts ₹200 per month from the wages of the workers. "How can someone be asked to pay professional tax if they are not contractual workers? The employers do not have any responsibility towards the workers."Even as the verbal duel goes on, the families of the deceased workers in Surat have only seen the diamonds turn to dust.

Indian govt looks to liquefy gas Iraq flares and imports

MANISH GUPTA New Delhi, July 11

INDIAN GOVERNMENT IS in talks with Iraq to check the possibility of setting up a plant in Iraq to liquefy the excess petroleum gas that the Arabian country flares as waste product and import it into India, a senior government official said.

"Gas flaring in Iraq is huge. It's almost as much gas we import each year. We can certainly look at having some liquefaction facility there. The challenges are not in terms of intent, but more related to visas and sending big teams to study and develop a plan on the ground," the official said

The discussion was part of the joint commission meeting (JCM) between Iraq and India last month. The bilateral meeting, happening after a gap of 10 years, is second after the National Security Advisors meeting held last March.

Gas flaring has been an issue with Iraq. The country wants to end the burning of associated gas in the oilfields to cut down losses and reduce gas imports.

■ Gas flaring has been an issue with Iraq. The country wants to end the burning of associated gas in the oilfields to cut down losses and reduce gas imports

Besides, there is a growing consensus of a link between gases flared in the air and rise in cancer cases. Iraq burns 70% of the natural gas produced in its oil fields as a waste product. As per a World Bank estimate, Iraq flares about 16 billion cubic meters of gas per day. However, it has planned to end gas flaring in natural gas produced in its oil fields as a waste product. As per a World Bank estimate, Iraq flares about 16 bn cubic meters of gas per day next two years. It has invited foreign companies to explore and develop natural gas reserves. Since the attack on two Saudi share certificates reported lost:

Aramco oil facilities in 2019 that forced Saudi Arabia to shut down half its total oil production, Indian government has drawn up a strategy to diversify as much as possible, and is planning to increase the ratio of term contracts as compared to spot purchases. "We are also looking at oil coming from Guyana. Basically we are oil hungry and will explore wherever we can get good term deals. Right now the division between term and spot is 70:30, but 30% spot is also high. We are looking at more term deals so that we can actually calculate our outgo," he said. The official informed that Iraq has been giving "very good" discounts to India in the term contracts for oil imports. India has asked them to extend the credit period from 60 days to 90 days, which the Iraqi government plans to discuss with the oil companies.

Northwest region gets 62% surplus rainfall

SANDIP DAS New Delhi, July 11

SURPLUS RAINS IN the northwest India including Punjab, Haryana, Himachal Pradesh and Uttarakhand have disrupted the supplies and submerging standing crops such as vegetables and paddy in many parts of the region. Agriculture ministry officials said that despite overall surplus in the monsoon rains so far, there has been deficiency in precipitation in the key paddy growing states of Bihar, Jharkhand, West Bengal, Odisha and Telangana where transplantation has been delayed.

TOMATO PRICES WILL continue to be elevated for another month or so owing to supply disruption caused by surplus rainfall in the hilly states of Himachal Pradesh and Uttarakhand, traders said. As soon as the supplies from the two hilly states that have try's tomato production commenced, rainfall disrupted the transportation as well as harvesting of the crops.

At Delhi's Azadpur mandi, the largest wholesale market for fruits and vegetables in Asia, tomato prices rose to ₹25,00 per 25 kg on Tuesday against ₹2000/bag prevailed a week ago.
